

JRCNMT Accreditation Fees

2010 - 2011

Program Accreditation Fee

For new programs this fee must be submitted with the initial application. The self-study may be submitted at the same time or can be sent within one year of application submission.

Initial application for accreditation	$2000
---------------------------------------	--------

For programs undergoing reaccreditation this fee is billed in July of the year prior to reaccreditation. The invoice is mailed to Program Directors with the self-study materials. This fee is based on the size of the program by counting major, academic and Candidate for Approval affiliates:

Continuing application
0 – 5 affiliates	$1000
6 – 10 affiliates	$1100
11 – 20 affiliates	$1200
21+ affiliates	$1300

Affiliate Application Fee

Programs may make application for approval of new affiliates at any time.

New major or academic affiliate application	$350
New minor affiliate application	$500

Annual Fee

All accredited programs are charged an annual fee consisting of a sponsor fee plus applicable affiliate fees. Affiliate fees are charged for each major and academic affiliate and for each site holding Candidate for Approval status.

Invoices for annual fees are mailed to programs on January 2nd of each year. Second notices for unpaid bills are sent by certified letter on March 1. Programs have until April 1 to submit payment. After that date programs with unpaid balances will be placed on administrative probation. The unpaid fees plus an administrative probation rescission fee of $250 must be paid for the program to be removed from administrative probation.

Annual sponsor	$990
Annual co-sponsor (if applicable)	$990
Annual affiliate	$160 per affiliate

Site Visit Fee

Programs undergoing a site visit are pre-billed for estimated costs of travel, hotel and meals for each site visitor. When actual expenses are determined after the visit the program will be billed for the balance due or will receive a refund if prepayment exceeded actual costs.

Deadline Extension Fee

This fee is charged when a program requests an extension on the self-study deadline or when a program submits a self-study that is incomplete or unacceptable and must be returned for revision. The fee is $250. The deadline will typically be extended no more than two months unless extenuating circumstances exist.

Program accreditation and affiliate application fees are non-refundable
