

JOINT REVIEW COMMITTEE ON EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS IN NUCLEAR MEDICINE TECHNOLOGY

SITE EVALUATOR INFORMATION SHEET

Name:

Preferred Mailing Address:

Choose one: Home

City, State and Zip:

Business

Telephone:

Cell :

Email:

Employer:

Title:

CERTIFICATION

JRCNMT policy requires a site evaluator to be credentialed in nuclear medicine technology or in radiology, nuclear medicine, or medical physics. Please provide information regarding current certifications below:

Certifying body:

Certifying body:

Credential:

Credential:

Year of certification:

Year of certification:

PRACTITIONER STATUS

The USDE requires the JRCNMT to assign at least one practitioner to every site visit team. The JRCNMT defines a practitioner as an individual who, on average, provides or oversees services to patients in a healthcare setting a minimum of eight hours per week:

I meet the definition of a practitioner.

I do not meet the definition of a practitioner.

PROGRAM AFFILIATION

Please indicate the name of any nuclear medicine technology program with which you are affiliated and the nature of your relationship with the program.

Program name and location:

Nature of affiliation (faculty, clinical instructor/supervisor, graduate, etc...)

DISTANCE EDUCATION EXPERIENCE

I have experience in distance education delivery: Yes No

If yes, please explain:

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Do you have travel restrictions: Yes No

If yes, please explain:

CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

I am aware that as a participant in accreditation site visits, I will have access to accreditation information which shall remain confidential. I agree to respect and protect the confidentiality of all accreditation materials, recommendations, suggestions and discussions prior to, during, and following my site visit.

Signed:

Date:

Please attach a current resume and documentation of current board certifications(s).
If you are making initial application you must also include a letter detailing your reasons for applying and a letter of reference from an employer or professional colleague.