Procedures

1.1101A Holds as confidential the following documents and the information contained therein other than those required by regulation to be distributed to state postsecondary education agencies:

1. Application for accreditation
2. Self-Study
3. Letter of Findings
4. Progress and interim reports
5. Correspondence between the JRCNMT and programs related to the accreditation process.

1.1101B Makes public the following information about accredited programs:

1. Name of the sponsoring institution
2. Contact information for the program
3. Name of the program director
4. Current accreditation status, including the accreditation letter.
5. Year of initial accreditation and year of next accreditation review
6. Program student capacity
7. Month(s) in which new class begins
8. Academic awards – certificate and/or degree level
9. Program graduate outcomes

1.1101C Prevents JRCNMT board members, site evaluators and staff from discussing, disclosing or using information specific to a program of which they have knowledge by virtue of their involvement in the accreditation process, except when 1) officially participating in this capacity, 2) disclosure is required by law, or 3) it is reasonable to believe that failure to disclose the information would lead to continued illegal or unsafe practices. Unauthorized disclosure or use of program information is a serious breach of confidentiality and can be the basis for disciplinary and legal action and for removal from participation in JRCNMT accreditation activities.

Commented [JW1]: This is the preliminary letter that goes to the PD and immediate supervisor after the site visit. It does not contain an accreditation decision. It remains confidential.

Commented [JW2]: The JRCNMT will publish the most recent accreditation letter for each program in the online directory of programs.
