

Documents To Be Available At the Site Visit

*2018 Standards
digital format is acceptable*

1. Documentation of primary faculty's participation in faculty development activities since the previous site visit, excluding the documentation included in the self-study. (A2.3)
2. Printout of student-accessible library holdings related to nuclear medicine purchased in the past two years. (B1)
3. Most recent syllabus for each course in the professional program. (C4 & C5)
4. Individual student records documenting attainment of the competencies identified in Standard C7.
5. Documentation from all courses demonstrating that published course-level learning objectives form the basis for student evaluation in the respective course. (D2.2)
6. Samples of recent exams and course projects. (D2.1 - 2.3)
7. Records of clinical affiliate visits by the program director and/or clinical coordinator. (D3.1j)
8. Certification exam print-outs showing graduate results obtained since the self-study was submitted. (D3.2)
9. Minutes of Advisory Committee meetings for the two years prior to those in the self-study plus for any meeting held since the self-study was submitted. (D3.3)
10. Current student handbook/manual. (E1.2)
11. Didactic and clinical records of current students plus two previous years of graduates. (E2.2)
12. Documentation confirming student review of radiation dosimeter readings for current year and the two previous years. (E3.3)

